

CAPTAIN SKIP ANDERSON

A graduate of the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland, Skip earned his B.S. degree in Operations Analysis. He was also a letter-winner on the USNA Varsity Sailing Team, and went on to compete in several national and North American championships, and one Olympic trials. He earned his Master of Science degree in Command Control and Communications from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California. Captain Anderson's naval career spanned twenty-four years, including service aboard three destroyers, one frigate, three aircraft carriers, and a battleship. His travels spanned the globe, to all continents, through over thirty countries and countless harbors.

CAPTAIN JAN ANDERSON

Jan is the brains behind Flagship's success, and she keeps Skip and the whole Flagship crew marching in the right direction. While Skip may be the Captain, there's no doubt who's Admiral! Jan is also one of the most gifted marine photographers in the Pacific Northwest region. Her work documents all types, sizes, and activities of boats, from British Columbia to the Columbia River, and everywhere in between. Most weekends she can be found on Puget Sound, shooting prestigious sailing regattas. The fruits of her talent and labor can be found in 48 North magazine, Northwest Yachting magazine, Pacific Yachting magazine, Sail magazine, Sailing World magazine, and online at Sailing Anarchy and Pressure Drop web sites. Her work is in high demand by commercial marketing firms, marinas, yacht clubs, maritime industry companies, and for sail makers.
